TERMS OF SALE

All coins and bills guaranteed genuine.

New bidders or customers sending in bids for the first time must positively give first class reference, bank reference preferably, or else send a deposit of at least 25% of the total amount of bids. Otherwise, their bids will not be accepted; application of such deposit will be made upon successful bids; the seller reserves the right to demand payment upon successful bids before delivery in his sole discretion. To those known to me who have established credit, a reference or deposit is not necessary and purchases will be sent out promptly after the sale. In appreciation of this courtesy the purchaser remits promptly.

Collectors who make unlimited bids will get the lots at 5% above the highest actual bid entered.

The terms are prompt cash settlement after sale, and no time given. Collectors who are not certain that they can pay promptly are asked not to bid. The coins in the sale are the property of my clients, and I must make prompt settlement for them.

Remit by money order, draft, check, or in any way most convenient. Stamps accepted for accounts that are below one dollar only.

Coins will be bought below your bids where other offers permit, as this is competitive bidding, executed in good faith.

The usual charge of 5% will be made for executing your bids, and for packing and sending out material. No charge made on anything not actually purchased. Postage and express is paid by the purchaser.

Receipted bills are not sent out after your remittance as this is unnecessary. Your check, draft or money order itself is a receipt. However, if a 3-cent stamp is enclosed we will send receipt.

Be certain that you bid on the lot you wish to buy. We will correct errors and adjust claims, but you should not expect us to pay for your mistakes. Be careful in making your bids. Be sure that you bid on the lot you wish to buy, and at so much per piece.

Bids must reach me by the morning of the sale. Mail them in time so as to avoid disappointment. At each sale some bids arrive too late to be executed.

All bids are entered as received and lots distributed to the highest bidder without reserve. When two or more bids are the same, and there are no higher bids, the first received gets the lot. When two or more unlimited bids on a certain lot are sent, the first one received gets the lot at a 5% advance over the highest actual bid.

Between the seller and buyer, my position in describing the condition of coins and bills has been neutral. My classifications are generally considered to be conservative, by the collecting public.

It is easy to bid by mail. If you do not know how much to bid on any items, write me giving numbers in catalog and I shall be glad to inform you as to values. It is useless and a waste of time to make low bids that have no chance of success. I sincerely hope that each collector acquires some nice lots from this sale that give him a real thrill and joy of satisfaction.

Please bid by the piece unless stated to bid for the lot. Thus, if there are 12 pieces in a lot and you wish to pay $6 for the lot, then bid 50c. At each sale someone bids by the lot. Don't do this—bid by the piece.

NOTE—A printed list of all the prices realized at this sale will be sent for one dollar, cash with order in advance. Or it will be furnished to bidders at this sale for only 25 cents in coin, if ordered in advance of the sale, and a quarter is enclosed with the bids. It is a great help and a satisfaction to keep posted on values.

A TRIP ABROAD

The morning of July 4th found us riding in a comfortable open-top sight-seeing bus from Bergen to Nordheim, through a delightful scenic mountainous country. Melting snow and mountain glaciers fed the numerous beautiful waterfalls that dropped hundreds of feet over precipices. While America was sweltering in the most severe heat wave ever experienced we were traveling about the snowtopped mountains and on occasions even got right into the snow and made snowballs. For a pleasant summer vacation it is difficult to equal this awe-inspiring region of western Norway, with its mountains and snow, falls and flowers, cherries and berries, stately pines and jaggy rocks, deep fertile valleys, leading to the picturesque fjords themselves.

We stopped for lunch in Nordheim, and visited the quaint shops. Then the afternoon was spent on the interesting boat trip on Herdangarfjord to Ulvik. We were hospitably entertained at dinner on the boat and the food was excellent. The changing views of scenery as we travel by mountains that rise from the sea level for over a mile, afford us glimpses that we can't forget. Our moving pictures taken here are always enjoyed when presented. We stayed in a new hotel at Ulvik, and enjoyed the comfort. From here, we take long walks in different ways. Girls are picking cherries and are courteous and kind to us, in offering us some fruit. Everyone is so friendly. There is a foreign animal to me—now I have caught it. Well, I never saw anything like it so I can not name it. See the old sickle-grinder utilizing a small waterfall for turning his grindstone, a home-made affair.

Together with a German Baron and Baroness of high rank we four charter a small boat to make a side trip, exploring regions off the beaten trail. After several hours' ride, we leave the boat and walk about, following a rushing torrent toward its source up the mountains to a fine waterfall and rapids below. We pick flowers and return to our boat, and thence back through the fjord to the hotel. We enjoy luncheon and dinner with these fine folks of German nobility and in the evening attend a folk dance by about twenty young men and ladies in native Herdager costumes. They entertain us delightfully with their graceful dances and typical songs. Of course, we walk home in another shower, as they must have a little rain about every day in western Norway. Ulvik is called the "pearl of Hardanger" and has rich and varied scenery and healthy and embracing air, the people have much charm and courtesy, there is fine fishing in the fjord, salmon of the choice red kind, trout in the streams and lakes, delicious mammoth strawberries and enough fine cattle to furnish rich cream for them, and we were served a pitcher full of home-made ice cream with strawberries at dinner. The Baron seemed to enjoy this as much as we. We decided to eat all we could, and another big dish of berries and another pitcher of ice cream was brought out. The Baroness' charm and grace and countless jewels were all forgotten by the Baron and myself. The Baron felt so good he handed me a big black cigar. Skjervefoss is a beautiful waterfall nearby. Our expense for two days' lodgings and meals in this fine new hotel was only 25 kroner, about $6.
